

EXPECTATIONS & REQUIREMENTS

G
L
O
B
A
L

S
C
H
O
L
A
R
S

WE will post global learning opportunities on our website
– it is up to YOU to take advantage of what is offered

<http://globalscholars.georgetowncollege.edu/calendar.htm>

Remember to turn in a reflection
after international experiences
to earn a GSP point

Meet with Global Scholars Leadership Team

Read The World is Flat by Thomas Freidman by your 3rd
semester as a Global Scholar

Maintain 3.0 GPA

Participate in activities with international students

Keep informed about international news!
Watch T.V., listen to the radio, read online...
CNN International -Channel 62 (campus cable)
BBC World - Channel 61 (campus cable)

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/radio/>

BBC also on PBS: m-f @ 11:00pm

Complete International Option projects in 3 classes

Yearly
consultations with the Graves Center
turn in updated resume to
GSP Leadership Team
each year*

Attend GSP required events and perform volunteer activities

Attend yearly Worldview Briefing in the fall by Dr. John Stempel (UK's Patterson School of Diplomacy & GC Trustee)

Earn 10 GSP points each year

G
L
O
B
A
L

S
C
H
O
L
A
R
S

What type of activities will earn GSP points ???

- Assist with and/or Organize international guest lecturers
- Attend international events and seminars not hosted by GSP
- Create your own opportunities by setting up visits with international companies or organizations
- Attend international art exhibits, festivals and foreign films
- Lead internationally focused workshops or give international presentations
- Engage other activities designed to explore global issues
(example: join organizations with an international focus and related to career field)